

CALIFORNIA STATE
ASSEMBLYMEMBER JIM BEALL

PRESENTS

“Surviving the Recession and Beyond”

This recession is hitting our middle-class families especially hard. They're losing their jobs, their health coverage, and their homes. This January, I will be hosting two events to link people to services and experts that will help them find jobs and stay afloat during the recession. Call 408-282-8920 or go to www.assembly.ca.gov/beall to RSVP.

Friday, January 8, 2010
“Making Ends Meet in Today's Tough Economy”

10am-2pm
San Jose City College Student Center
2100 Moorpark Ave, San José

Event Details:

Community Resource Faire

Experts from dozens of community organizations and local and state agencies will be present to link people to information in the areas of unemployment insurance, employment and education training programs, health insurance, food stamps, housing services including foreclosure counseling and loan modification programs and much more.

Special Presentation on How to Effectively Access Unemployment Insurance

California State Employment Development Department will give an overview on how to apply for unemployment insurance and tips that can help you get your checks on time. Information on accessing federal extensions will also be reviewed.

Parking

Free parking is reserved in the parking garage directly in front of the Student Center and can be accessed from Leigh Avenue. Plenty of directional signs will point you in the right direction.

Saturday, January 23, 2010
“Retooling for Tomorrow”

Workforce Trends & Employer Panel and Free Breakfast
8:30-11:30am
Camden Community Center
3369 Union Avenue, San José

Event Details:

Enjoy fluffy pancakes, fruit and hot coffee while you listen to a panel discussion that will help prepare you to meet the employment needs of today and tomorrow. Panel experts will review unemployment and economic statistics and discuss where the economy is headed. Employer panelists will discuss short and long-term employment opportunities and the skill sets necessary to take advantage of them.

Panel begins at 9:30am. Free Parking